About Us

There is something special about the Burdekin. It is found in the people who call this region home, in the rich soils that produce some of Australia's finest crops, and in the strong sense of community that brings people together year after year.

The Sweet Days Hot Nights Festival is a celebration of all of this – our people, our produce and our culture. Since 2018, the festival has proudly showcased the very best of our region and the lifestyle it offers to both locals and visitors. What began as a humble event centred around the Australian Hand Cane Cutting Championships has grown into a vibrant two-day festival, now attracting more than 4,000 attendees from across Australia.

As part of the Burdekin Tourism Strategy, the festival plays an important role in promoting our region, building destination awareness and driving visitation that directly supports local businesses and the broader economy.

With a clear vision for the future, Burdekin Shire Council has developed a Strategic Plan to guide the festival's growth. This focuses on strengthening community participation, enhancing programming, increasing capacity and delivering impactful marketing, ensuring the festival continues to evolve as a recognised destination event.

Our vision is simple, to position the Sweet Days Hot Nights Festival as a must-visit event in Queensland, one that celebrates who we are and shares the Burdekin story with a wider audience.

Why Partner With Us

When you partner with the Sweet Days Hot Nights Festival, you are not just sponsoring an event – you are becoming part of something that matters to this region.

Since the festival's rebrand, the response from the business community has been outstanding, with more than 30 sponsors contributing through financial and in-kind support, alongside over 30 local businesses and community organisations helping bring the festival to life.

Together, this creates real economic impact by driving visitation, supporting local industry and creating opportunities for businesses across the Burdekin.

As a sponsor, you will have the opportunity to:

- Connect with local audiences and visitors from across the region
- Align your brand with one of the Burdekin's signature events
- Showcase your business within an authentic agricultural and community setting
- Support regional growth while being part of an event that continues to expand in scale and reputation

In this Sponsorship Prospectus, you'll find a range of opportunities designed to suit different business goals and levels of involvement.

The Event Schedule

Across two days, the festival unfolds through the Burdekin Cultural Fair featuring First Fire and the Australian Hand Cane Cutting Championships. Together, these events deliver a diverse and engaging experience for all ages. Festivalgoers can enjoy live music, vintage machinery displays, market stalls and a range of food and beverage options, including a fully stocked bar. Families are well catered for, with children's activities including face painting, an animal farm, rides and interactive experiences designed to keep younger visitors entertained throughout the events.

DAY 1
FRI 28 MAY

BURDEKIN CULTURAL FAIR featuring FIRST FIRE

The festival begins on Friday evening at the Home Hill Showgrounds with the Burdekin Cultural Fair, a vibrant and energetic celebration of culture, food and entertainment. Festivalgoers can experience a diverse mix of live performances, hands-on activities and cuisine from across the world. From the rhythm of the drumming circle to the energy of Highland dancers and the excitement of Greek plate smashing, the Burdekin Cultural Fair offers something for everyone to enjoy, creating a lively and memorable start to the weekend.

As night falls, the festival reaches one of its most iconic and unforgettable moments, the lighting of the First Fire of the sugar cane crushing season. As flames ignite the cane field, the night sky is illuminated with glowing light, crackling sound and the unmistakable sweet scent of burning sugar cane, an experience unique to the Burdekin.

DAY 2
SAT 29 MAY

AUSTRALIAN HAND CANE CUTTING CHAMPIONSHIPS

On Saturday, the focus shifts to the Australian Hand Cane Cutting Championships, where the Burdekin's agricultural heritage takes centre stage. This signature event showcases a powerful display of strength, skill and endurance, as competitors go head-to-head in a traditional practice passed down through generations.

Set in a burnt cane paddock, the Championships offer a rare opportunity to witness the tough, hands-on work of a bygone era, as competitors swing their cane knives in a true test of precision and resilience.

TWO BIG DAYS. ONE SWEET WEEKEND.

Got a unique idea to be part of the festival? We welcome businesses to bring forward creative concepts, activations or partnership ideas. Let's work together to design a sponsorship that delivers brand exposure and audience engagement.
